

Luca Parise

Paris, 1991. He is a Brazilian artist based in Seravezza, Italy.

Born in Paris, in 1991, he is a Brazilian artist based in Seravezza, Italy. His practice spans multiple media, with a primary focus on sculpture, drawing, and installation, while also engaging with architecture through AVENTURA, a multidisciplinary group. Today, he works and collaborates with Chiara Camoni, while also part of the Centro di Sperimentazione, a research and production project, born within the studio and its collaborative group.

Luca's diverse background spans actuarial science (with a degree from FEA – University of São Paulo), consulting, and venture building. His experience in founding art-related initiatives such as Nail on Wall, Clube de Colecionadores, OPCAC, and AVENTURA showcases his experimental approach to both life and art.
